

fresh insights

January 2020

Register for Boot Camp in Washington, DC March 26-27, 2020

Register now for our 10th ACF Boot Camp on March 26-27, 2020. This 2-day interactive curriculum will cover essential aspects of anticoagulation, disease state, and drug management. All past programs have sold out, and we anticipate strong regional interest this year, so please register ASAP!

Click here to Register

This year's Boot Camp Faculty:

- Arthur Allen, PharmD, CACP
- Geoff Barnes, MD, MSc
- Nathan Clark, PharmD, FCCP, BCPS
- Scott Kaatz, DO, MSc, FACP, SFHM
- Diane Wirth, MS, ANP-BC, CACP

Don't Miss Our Upcoming Live Webinar! January 30, 2020 12:00 PM EST

Join us for a special webinar as we partner with National Blood Clot Alliance for a conversation on women's health and blood clots.

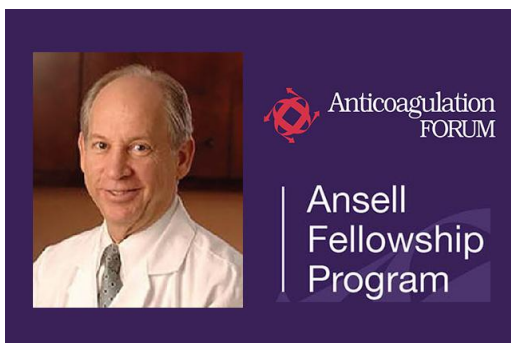

Panel Discussion: The Impact of Blood Clots and Clotting Disorders on Women's Health

Click here to Register

Speakers:

- Tracy Minichiello, MD
- Rachel Rosovsky, MD
- Sara Vazquez, PharmD
- Diane Wirth, ANP

ACF | Ansell Fellowship Applications Due by January 15, 2020

The first-ever Anticoagulation Forum|Ansell Fellowship is accepting applications to provide grants to support one-year fellowships in general vascular medicine. Priority will be given to institutions with exemplary faculty and clinician investigators, and who have access to a pool of high-quality applicants.

Click here to Apply

Management of Anticoagulant-Associated Bleeding Events Including Reversal Strategies

Click here for the Centers of Excellence Resource Center

Comprehensive, customizable document from the AC Forum to support institutions in compliance with The Joint Commission National Patient Safety Goal 03.05.01 Element of Performance 2 -- reversal of anticoagulation & management of bleeding events related to each anticoagulant medication. Includes instructions for all agents with treatment of critical, major and non-major patients.

Click here to download document

THSNA 2020 5th Biennial Summit April 22-25, 2020

THSNA 2020, organized by Thrombosis and Hemostasis Societies of North America will be held April 22-25, 2020 in Chicago, IL. As a founding member of THSNA, AC Forum collaborates as one of 14 organizations in Thrombosis and Hemostasis to provide a forum for over 1,500 attendees to network, learn, and share across disciplines and disease states.

Click here to learn more

Dr. Stephen Moll Gets a Call from Space

Listen to ACF Advisory Council member Stephen Moll describe his encounter with an astronaut who experienced a blood clot for the first time in space.

"There's a patient up there who wants the expertise and you give the best advice that you can."

Click here to watch video clip

Thank You to Our Newsletter Sponsors

